Sedan Runs Into Loose Gravel On Highway And Overturns

Publicity Campaign For Sonoma Valley Is To Be Put On

SAN FRANCISCANS NARROWLY ESCAPE IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Prominent Creamery Man and Guests Enroute Here in Car Met With Disaster; Slight Injuries.

A big Reo sedan, owned by John Iacono, one of the proprietors of the Sonoma Mission Creamery overturned near the Waller ranch Sunday morning last as Mr. Iacono, accompanied by his wife, two children, Miss Mary Sganzini, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Abati and little daughter were enroute here to visit his partner, Joseph Vella. The car got into the heavy gravel along the side of the highway and in turning back onto the road, locked wheels and made a complete somersault, overturning and then righting itself with the occupants all inside. The top of the sedan was smashed, but held together, every pane of glass but one was broken and it is a miracle that no one was injured or killed.

Mrs. Abati and little girl were taken to the Burnsdale Sanitarium suffering from shock and cuts but the rest of the party were picked up by Joseph Sutter and brought to the Vella home, where a physician pronounced them unhurt. The big car, with its wheels bent and twisted, was towed to the Palage Garage by L E Tracey.

Mr. Iacono was not driving fast and it at a loss to understand the accident, unless the gravel explains it. He feels very thankful at the escape of his family and frinds in the wreck. His guest, Mr. Abate is the well known general manager of the California-Italian Products, Inc., and with his wife and little girl remained over until Monday when the family left the sanitarium after a night's rest and treatment following the accident.

WOMEN'S FARM WAS A FAILURE

That the 680 acre Kate Johnson property at Buena Vista, purchased by the State of California a few years ago as a Farm for Delinquent Women failed of its purpose and is unsuited as a farm because of water shortage is the statement of Walter Wagner, director of the State Department of in itutions. Mr. Wagner declares he is opposed to any appropriation by the legislature to re-open the farm and continue the experiment.

The director visited the institution here when it was being run by Miss Blanche Morse, superintendent, and observed its operations closely. At the time he announced that it was costing far too much per capita to keep up and was not being farmed Reports on the institution revealed the fact that the women inmates were not in love with their surroundings but were constantly escaping, with the result that local deputies from the sheriff's office and institution employees were constantly rounding up the delinquents and bringing them back to the honor system home for temporary incarceration. Riots were not uncommon, revolts at institution bills of fare were successful

Scientific Lecture Turned Out to be K. K. K. Meeting

Captain Tullett, proprietor of the El Verano Villa, was a surprised man when he discovered that the meeting in his hall last week was a K. K. K. gathering. He rented it to two gentlemen for a scientific lecture and was careful to exact a promise that it would be nothing offensive to any part of the community. When he discovered that the meeting was for a gathering of the Klan, he was dumfounded at the hoax perpetrated upon him. "I was tricked into renting my hall to the Ku Klux Klan," declares the ex-seafaring man.

SONOMA FACES RAISE IN RATES

Three Sonoma county towns and two in adjacent counties are threatened with increased local electric rates as the resuplt of the appeal of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company to the State Railroad Commission to raise resale rates. Increases are sought in some 30 towns of the territory served by the big corporation, including Sonoma, Guerneville, Monte Rio, Calistoga and Novato

The action, which was filed by the corporation in the form of a petition to amend and revise rates for resale service, disclosed on trial before Commissioner Clyde L. Seavey that the petitioning company desires to boost its rates $400,000 to the distributing companies that serve the consumers in the 30 cities.

Officials of the P. G. & E. Company contended that their present, resale rate scheduled to subsidiary companies netted a loss to the producing company estimated at $40,000 during the past 12 months.

This loss, the witnesses told Seavey, they wish to avoid in the future by increased charges.

To allow the towns interested to file any protests desired, the matter went over to February 12th, for hearing.

Citizens of Sonoma Valley are said to be strongly opposed to any raise in the rates and will protest the matter when it comes before the Railroad Commission. The City of Sonoma will also be represented.

SEVEN WINERY MEN BEING INVESTIGATED

Seven Sonoma county winemakers and vineyardists appeared Tuesday before Q. J. Boone, Federal prohibition enforcement officer holding hearings in the Santa Rosa postoffice building, to explain alleged shortages in wine held in bonded warehouses and wineries in this county.

The investigation of irregularities is being carried on in conjunction with similar investigations throughout the state. It is claimed by prohibition inspectors that $1,000,000 in wines have been "stolen" or mysteriously disappeared from northern California wineries.

Postmaster Meta Stofen suffered a bad fall in her home this week and severely sprained her ankle, the accident keeping her from her office.

Petaluma Building Concern Will Start Construction On New Homes Monday

On next Monday morning construction will start on three new $4500 bungalows to be erected on property recently purchased in the Hunt tract by the Petaluma Development Company. The new residence tract is one of the most beautiful in town and the bungalows will be in keeping with the surroundings making them ideal property. Mr. Hunt, the owner, has disposed of three lots to the Petalumans and when this land is built upon and disposed of the company will further invest and go on with its building until the entire tract is improved with artistic homes. The Petaluma capitalists foresee a great future for our beautiful little city and will help improve it. They are investing an initial amount of money aggregating a substantial sum and will sell the new homes to be built on easy terms.

C. R. Nelson is the contractor and he has already sub-let some of the contracts to local firms including A. J. Martinson, who will do the electrical work on the new bungalows.

Of the new concern's entrance into the Sonoma field, the Petaluma Argus says:

"The Petaluma Development Company, which has done so much of late to build up this city by the erection of numerous beautiful and modern homes, has acquired a splendid tract of most desirable land in the City of Sonoma and there it will open and place upon the market a restricted residence district, similar to the beautiful Batchelor Court, one of the show places of Petaluma, where nearly a dozen beautiful homes have just been erected and sold and of which every lot has been disposed of in a very brief period of time.

There they will begin the erection of several beautiful homes of the type just constructed and sold here to prominent Petalumans and Contractor M. C. R. Nelson, who built the Petaluma residences has been awarded the contract to build the Sonoma homes. He will begin work immediately and already several sales are in prospect and it is safe to predict that when the Sonoma people see the type of homes that are built, they will buy them up in short order.

"Of course, the company will continue its Petaluma activities, and is already planning on opening another new restricted district when the suitable land is acquired for the project. Half a dozen fine homes are now being completed by Contractor Nelson for the company.

"The company and the contractor are commended to the people of Sonoma who will find it a pleasure to do business with them.

"For the benefit of the Sonoma people, the Argus would state that the company is comprised of leading Petalumans, all business and professional men, and they have done a great work here to help people acquire new homes and to cease paying rent. The quality of the homes built by Mr. Nelson and his men is unsurpassed and record time is made in the work of construction. It was a good day for Sonoma wher this organization cast its eyes upon that city."

COTTAGE BAR ROOM RAIDED

Last Sunday a squadron of deputies from Sheriff Boyes' office descended on the fire swept ruins of the Lark at Agua Caliente and in a nearby cottage claim they found old John Barleycorn risen from the ashes and doing business at an impromptu bar. Some liquor was confiscated and the owner of the resort cited to appear in court.

At El Verano a raid was conducted the same day but yieded nothing.

HOWARD SPRECKELS NABBED FOR SPEEDING

Howard Spreckels, young millionaire resident of San Francisco who was up at his country place, Sobre Vista, over the last week end, was nabbed by Sonoma speed cops, Eberhardt and Ryan as he was enroute home Sunday evening. A charge of speeding and cutting in has been preferred against him, the officers alleging that he was rolling along a little over 36 miles within the city limits

1925 Building Program At State Home In Budget

The Sonoma State Home's total appropriation is set at $1 187,780, of which $1,077,280 is for maintenance for the two years, $537,320 one year and $539,960 the other, and $110,500 for permanent improvements. Allowance is made in the appropriations for a gain in population at the home from 1800 to 2200. The increase in the staff is from 252 to 264.

Under salaries and wages, $237,700 is allowed for the first year of the biennium and $240,340 the second. Materials and supplies will take $223,605 per year, a decrease from $225,000 allowed for the present year. Under service and expense $25,150 a year is set down and $50,865 a year for equipment.

The permanent improvement money, $110,500, is to be expended for a new cottage and equipment for inmates, $65,000; reconstruction of farm buildings, $10,000; completion of electric system, $25,000; completion of sewage disposal plant, $3000; bake oven, $2500; and garage for employes $5000.

A Maffei has returned from a trip to Del Norte county and spent a week on the cattle ranges of the Oregon line. He encountered a fine snow storm which was a real novelty to him. Mr. Maffei states the cattle men of the north were very hard hit by last year's water shortage.

The Hippodrome Finds Newspapers Very Valuable

The Hippodrome Theatre of Napa, the largest and most successful nearby play house, has been trying out a weekly program mailed to patrons, and also newspaper advertising and has come to the conclusion that the newspapers reach the greatest number of people. They have therefore discontinued their mailing list and will tell the public of their big screen events exclusively through the newspapers, including the Sonoma Index-Tribune. Watch for the Hippodrome announcements on page two.

JOINT INSTALLATION OF I.O.O.F. AND REBEKAHS

The I. O. O. F. hall was crowded to capacity last Monday evening, the occasion being the joint installation of Sonoma Odd Fellows and Verdant Degree Rebekahs. Mrs. Mabel Du Vander, district deputy president, of Windsor, with her drill team was present and there were others prominent in the Order who attended and participatd in this big night in local lodge circles.

Following the installation there was a banquet and social time.

HOUSEWARMING FOR BOYES CLUB FEB. 28

The first gathering at the new Boyes Springs club house will be on Saturday, February 28th, when a gala time is planned by the club members and their friends. A committee is now working out the program for the event.

Mrs. Borie, wife of the Mission care taker, is able to be about again after several weeks confinement at her home on account of a misstep while attending a local lodge gathering.

EXPERT TO HANDLE PROMOTION WORK IN THIS DISTRICT

Will J. Wallace Associates Himself With Index-Tribune for Purpose of Upbuilding Valley of the Moon.

A publicity campaign to further the progress of Sonoma Valley has been launched here by Will J. Wallace expert publicity man, who has associated himself with the Sonoma Index-Tribune and expects to work out of this office. The newspaper, co-operating with Mr. Wallace, has this object in view:

To promote the publicity expansion of the Valley of the Moon through newspaper and magazine write-ups through this and outside papers, to issue several thousand booklets descriptive and illustrative of Sonoma Valley, to foster community harmony and accelerate community progress, to project various events to attract people to Sonoma and the Valley of the Moon, to aid in the immediate re-establishment of a railroad depot at Boyes Springs, to interest and obtain excursions and outings for the valley, to interest capital in natural resources now unutilized, to promote general community welfare co-operating with the Chamber of Commerce and all civic clubs and organizations of the valley for the general development of the district.

Mr. Wallace who is an experienced specialist, comes well recommended and would command a big salary if acting as a secretary for any organization. He prefers, however, to work through the newspaper, and is enthusiastic over the possibilities of the Valley of the Moon. He believes he can interest the community in assuring funds to carry out the compre-

SONOMA BAKERS TO RAISE PRICE OF BREAD

On last Saturday evening representatives of the three Sonoma bakeries met at the home of M. Weiler, proprietor of the Old City Bakery, to discuss the bread problem.

During the past six months the price of baker's flour has advanced 60 per cent, flour now retailing at $11 a barrel, more than the price of flour during the war. Shortage of wheat is the explanation given by the stock exchange for the advance in price.

The price of bread was raised several cents a loaf in San Francisco more than six weeks ago and according to the papers, if the price of flour does not decrease another advance in price will take effect very shortly. The bakeries and retail stores of the county, with the exception of Sonoma, also raised the price several weeks ago.

The bakeries of Sonoma, ass soon as flour began to advance in price, purchased a large quantity and have given their patrons the benefit of their wise buying, but now their supply is exhausted and it is necessary to replenish their stock at a 60 per cent increase.

For the new prices see notice on page five.

HIPPODROME THEATRE
NAPA, CAL.

A CHAT WITH YOU

THE HOPPODROME is not merely a theatre—it is an institution. Three good reasons: Music, consistent quality of pictures and environment.

OUR SERVICE. We cannot present all the pictures produced, so we try to present only the good ones.

OUR POLICY. In addition to the above, our policy consists of courteous treatment to all attending at all times.

OUR PRICES. Children, 10c; adults, 30c; and on special occasions 50c for pictures that cost $2.00 in the big cities.

OUR COMFORTS. Special ventilating facilities. A cool place in summer and a warm place in winter.

OUR IDEALS. To maintain a theatre of clean amusement for all ages; for all of our friends, north, east, south and west. Make The Hippodrome your recreation center and bring your friends.

EL VERANO NEWS

By ARCHIBALD McKIVER

On February 16th the Seals pitchers and catchers will arrive at Boyes Springs to get in shape before going to the Fresno training camp. The athletes will spend 10 days in the Valley of the Moon enjoying the hot springs and balmy air as in former years, when the twirlers of the Seals derived great benefit from the hot baths after pitching and exercising on the diamond. During their stay they will be quartered at Cabanot's Resort, at which place reservations have been made already. The names of the star ball players who will arrive here in February are as follows: Pitchers—Guy Williams, Marty Griffin, Oliver Mitchell, Robert Geary, Bill Crockett, Dick Moudy, and Dave Salazer; catchers—Archie Yelle and Pete Ritchie. They will be accompanied by Bert Ellison, manager, and Denny Carroll, trainer. While here the boys will work out at the Seals' old training grounds at Boyes.

Duffy Lewis, manager of the Portland Beavers will arrive at Boyes Springs Sunday and will hold a consultation with James Baines, realty dealer, regarding his plans for bringing his ball team to the Valley of the Moon, which is famous as a training camp for ball players.

Mrs. B. Barrickman, daughter of the late pioneers, Mr. and Mrs. Caleb Carriger, died at Oakland Monday evening. Before removing to Oakland deceased had resided in El Verano almost all her life. Her husband Bart Barrickman, died in Oregon about a year ago, and one son, Bert, survives. Mrs. Barrickman was 45 years of age. One brother, Harry Carriger, resides in San Francisco. The Carriger family was famous in Sonoma Valley in the pioneer days and owned most of the western foothills, one of the picturesque spots of the Valley of the Moon.

Elmer Owens, who had resided in El Verano for many years and was recently in the employ of L. Parents and had been ailing for some time before being removed to San Francisco, passed away in that city Thursday, January 15th, of consumption. Mr. Owens was well known throughout the valley and his many friends regret his passing. He was buried in San Francisco Saturday. He was 50 years of age and is survived by one daughter, his wife having preceded him in death.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Colwell were S. P. passengers for Santa Rosa last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Johnstone of San Francisco were spending Sunday at the Minkel home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lippi and daughter, Miss Olga, were spending the week at their Coney Island summer cottage. The Lippis will vacation here during the summer months.

John and Leo iVincent of San Francisco were El Verano visitors Sunday. The Vincent home here has been leased to A. Bineta of Modesto, who with his family have come here to reside.

Charles Danieli and George Gale, San Franciscans, were spending Sunday with home folks here.

R. Buntrock of San Francisco who has purchased the 10 acres near the Lewis ranch, formerly owned by F. Jensen, has arrived and taken possession. Mr. Buntrock will go into the poultry business and will make many improvements on his new purchase, which will include setting out many trees. The newcomer likes the Sonoma Valley and is happy that he has located in the scenic Valley of the Moon, noted for its great climate and curative mineral springs, which are known the world over.

A Mexican inmate of the State Home at Eldridge, who was said to be hardboiled and a burglar by trade, made his get-away early Saturday evening from that institution, after being sent there from Ione. The fleeing inmate was captured at Schellville Sunday by Deputy Sheriff Ryan after he had entered a vacant summer home at El Verano, where he secured a pair of pants and other clothing.

John Giacopacy who recently had four fingers taken off by a power saw, has returned home from the Burnsdale Sanitarium at Vineburg and is getting along nicely.

Deputy Sheriff Ryan and Officers Westphal and Dixon raided a cottage at Agua Caliente Sunday, belonging to Sal Carlo, and succeeded in getting jackass and other liquors. The officers then made it to Lakeville where they pounced on that town and arrested another violator of the prohibition law, also getting mule and an assortment of Volstead's forbidden beverages.

Hazen and William Cowan returned Saturday to their Glen Ellen home after a business visit to Angel Camp.

Deputy Game Commissioner Lencioni arrested a San Francisco game violator last Sunday who had a gray squirrel in his possession. Lencioni of late has been active in Sonoma Valley grabbing game law violators.

John Douglas of Eldridge was renewing acquaintances in El Verano Sunday. John is one of the few pioneers left in these parts.

Claiming that $596.27 remains unpaid on a bill for lumber and supplies furnished for the building of a home for Clifford L. Hewitt, A. W. Adler and R. K. Weaver, Sonoma lumbermen, have filed suit for the amount in the superior court at Santa Rosa last Friday. naming Hewitt and his wife as defendants. H. A. W. Weske represents the plaintiffs.

Mrs. C. Danieli, who is suffering with neuritis and under the care of Dr. Thomson of Sonoma, is improving and will soon be able to be about again.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Fish and daughters of Alameda spent the week end at their Sonoma Vista home.

Miss Amy Poppe of Glen Ellen was a week end guest of friends in Santa Rosa.

Eddie Marron, former Sonoma Valley resort lessee and former San Francisco assemblyman, was sentenced to prison by Federal Judge John S. Partridge for conspiracy to violate the Volstead Act. Marron's jolt was a two year's prison term and a fine of $10,000. Others sentenced were Police Sargeant Joseph Gorham, two years and $2500 fine; Patrolman Patrick Kissane, two years and $1000; Charles Mahoney, manager of the Marron bootlegging establishment, $500 fine, and George Birdsall, 13 months and $1000 fine. These prisoners will be sent to Leavenworth federal prison, in Kansas, and the sentences handed out are the heaviest yet recorded for bootlegging.

Claude Kirkman has gone to San Francisco, where he accepted a position with the P. G. & E. Company.

Charles Fuchs of Sonoma Vista was called to Santa Rosa Tuesday as a juryman.

Railroad officials, with Tom Rowland, superintendent, had their private car attached to the local Santa Rosa train one night last week on a tour of inspection over this branch.

John Antoniovitch returned last Saturday after a several days' business visit in San Francisco. Mr. Antoniovitch, a stock and turkey raiser, has leased the O'Brien ranch.

Mrs. Eliza Shepard has returned to Glen Ellen after a visit with San Jose friends.

A. Swensson is spending the week in Vallejo.

J. Signorelli, Sonoma Valley vineyardist, is contemplating setting out a number of grape vines to add to his already fine vineyard north of El Verano. Mr. Signorelli has recently had a fine concrete driveway entrance erected in front of his beautiful residence, formerly the Spindler place.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gaige of Richmond were spending the week end with Sonoma Valley relatives.

Mrs. Maggie Smith, who has resided in El Verano for several months left for Washington last Monday, where she will make her future home.

Perkins brothers, jazz leaders of the Valley of the Moon, gave a dance at El Verano Villa last Saturday evening and played to a large crowd of dance lovers, who enjoyed the even

PASSING OF HENRY L. HAYES

Henry L. Hayes, uncle of John Hayes, Mrs. Lund, Mrs. Palmer and Harry Hayes, passed away at his home on Broadway Saturday. The old gentleman had attained the age of 75 years and during his long and useful life did much good work in philanthropy and exemplified the life of a true and faithful Christian.

Deceased was born in Paralton, England, in 1850, and came to this country in 1868, settling in Philadelphia where he joined his brother Ebenezer. The loyalty and love of the brothers, one for the other, was brought out in the beautiful tribute paid to the late Mr. Hayes at Masonic Temple Tuesday, where Sonoma Lodge paid final respects to their deceased member. Worthy Master Hotz conducted the funeral ritual with all the impressive ceremony of the Order and there were appropriate hymns rendered by Mrs. Ida Hotz of Valley of the Moon Chapter, Order of Eastern Star.

In his eulogy of the late Henry Hayes, Rev. Mr. Crowe sketched the life of deceased, telling of his coming to California in 1872, of his marriage in 1873, and the passing of the wife and child who preceded him to the Great Beyond. He spoke words of consolation to the surviving relatives and reminded them of the rich heritage which this man of real Christian qualities had left. With his elder brother, Ebenezer, deceased affiliated with the Baptist church when a very young man and throughout the years exemplified his true Christian character. For 40 years he was connected with the Protestant Orphanage of San Francisco, where he did much good work. The Masons have been honored in such a life, declared Rev. Crowe.

Following the services at Masonic Temple, the mourners, friends and brother accompanied the remains to Mountain cemetery where the last sad rites preceded consignment of the casket to the grave. Many beautiful flowers covered the last resting place.

AUTO LICENSE PLATES FOR 1925

The following call to motorists to secure their 1925 license plates was issuel this week by the Division of Motor Vehicles:

"Your new license plates. Have you sent to Sacramento for them?

"Attend to this at once. It is important to you.

"If you are the legal owner of your car put your pink certificate and your white certificate and a check, bank draft or money order for $3.00 in an envelope and send it to the Division of Motor Vehicles, Tenth and S streets, Sacramento, California.

"If you do not have the white certificate send the pink with your fee.

"If you do not own your car get in touch with your legal owner, give him your white certificate and the $3 and have him forward the application with the pink certificate.

"Make every effort to get your pink certificate. Your white certificate and fee will be accepted but you will be delayed because it must be verified.

If you own a truck or vehicle used for commercial purposes the fee will be the same as last year. If you have a truck and passenger car send separate checks for each.

"Branch offices and automobile clubs will not open until February 2 for plate deliveries.

REPOSES BESIDE OLD FRIEND

O. R. Butts, friend of Mrs. Reed, the nurse, and of her parents before her, died at the Burnsdale Sanitarium and his remains were shipped to Oakland to repose beside those of his old comrade, Mr. Reed.

The late Mr. Butts was 82 years of age and had been tenderly cared for here since last September by his nurse and devoted friend. Many years ago a plot alongside of the Reed's was selected by deceased as his last resting place.

Mrs. Blanche Weems, former society woman of Sonoma Valley, is a patient at a state hospital and is said to have mental trouble which made her care by specialists imperative.

THE CHILD LABOR LAW

California has ratified the child labor amendment which gives Congress power to enact legislation to prevent children from working up to the time they are 18 years of age.

While it is believed that the new Twentieth Amendment will be properly safeguarded so as not to be too wide-sweeping in its effect on farm and orchard, for instance, it is really radical legislation for it punishes many and would deprive children of employment in trades and occupations where they are not driven or exploited, but are well paid and benefited. Sentimentality, fed up on the extreme cases of child labor abuses, has led to the framing of a measure which may easily become a menace to the country and its youth. Where children are slave-driven in mills, factory or field their employers should be severely punished and some industries should not be allowed to hire children at all.

Extremists, however, will fasten another unreasonable amendment on the United States if the greatest care is not exercised. The hardship wrought by one ill-advised law is pointed out in the excellent prize article on "Eliminating Juvenile Crime" written recently by Dr. Eva Charlotte Reid for the San Francisco Daily Herald, as follows:

"The California law requiring attendance at school until the age of 16 and part time attendance until 18, should be modified, or provision should be made in the schools for vocational training. Probably 50 per cent of school children have not the mentally to profit by an education more adavnced than the eighth grade and are better fitted to work with their hands than their brains. On this class the present law works great hardship. It interferes with the holding of regular positions, results in idleness, discontent, discouragement, and evasion of the law."

That the child labor amendment will also work hardships and largely fail of its purpose for reasons similar to the school law is all too likely. When women advocates of reform view things from both sides and in their finality we shall have saner legislation.

SAVE THE DRUNKARD

Now that the prohibition law has failed to stop drunkenness, the purveyors of cures for the drink habit are advertising that their medicine will stop the craving for moonshine. Perhaps the cure for excess must be found in some powder, pill or potion. It certainly cannot be found in any law. If character and home training will not assure sobriety, a foolish powder should be far more effective and not half so deadly as a foolish law.

BIG "INJUN" WRITES SENATOR SLATER

The following communication from Senator Slater recently appeared in the Press Democrat and will be of interest to the solon's many friends:

Yesterday I received a letter from Dick Blue Jay, Healdsburg Indian, addressed to me at his request by Jules Myron Alexander, poet laureate of Sonoma county, and great observer of mankind and things in general. The letter created no end of amusement here in Sacramento. I know that readers will be interested in reading this letter. It contains many interesting ideas. It does not unfold an "untutored mind" by any means- but the letter speaks for itself:

"Injun Camp, Junuery 9, 1925

WOMAN'S CLUB SPEAKER IS MUCH ENJOYED

The Sonoma Valley Woman's Club had a delightful program for its social afternoon Friday of last week. A paper by Mrs. Elmer M. Smith of San Francisco on the dramatic and musical offerings of the past year was replete with allusions to well known players, musicians and celebrities and was an entertaining review of San Francisco's theatrical and musical attractions during 1924. Mrs. Smith, introduced by Miss Florence Murphy, program director of the afternoon, launched into her subject with a few introductory remarks and spoke first of "Lightnin' one of the greatest dramatic successes of the year. She stressed the void created by the death of Frank Bacon, who made the play so famous, but complimented the cast in general and the present delineation of the lazy, tippling, lovable "Lightnin' Bill Jones, leading character of the play.

"Romance" of Doris Keane, with its old time costumes and wonderful atmosphere was highly commended.

Of Ethel Barrymore, the reviewer spoke affectionately, declaring she possessed all the Barrymore charm of old but that the play, "Laughing Lady," an English society drama, hardly did her justice.

The Mission Play by McGroarty was commended as one of the colorful and spectacular offerings of the year, but did not compare with our own Sonoma Mission Play, so Mrs. Smith declared and quite sincerely for she so expressed herself at seeing the Holme play at the time she first witnessed it at our old Mission in June, 1923.

The story of composer Schubert's hopeless love wrought into the musical delight "Blossom Time," with its old scenes and costumes of Vienna, its haunting arias, was recalled and praised.

The Shakespearian offerings of the year, particularly the original interpretation of "Shylock" by David Warfield, and the unmatchable "Lear" of Robert Mantell were touched upon.

The clever mystery play, "The Cat and the Canary," recently presented, was conceded a triumph in stagecraft.

Most enthusiastic was the reviewer over San Francisco's musical triumphs, particularly the work of the Symphony Orchestra, now comparing favorably with the symphonies of the great Eastern cities.. The municipal opera and spring music festival, including Mabler's Ninth Symphony, "The Resurrection," was praised and the club members urged to hear this great offering of Hertz and the chorus of 500 voices, which will undoubtedly be repeated this spring.

Mrs. Smith spoke also of the 1924 grand opera companies and their stars, predicting return engagements of much interest.

On the club program for musical numbers were Lyle Campbell who presented a program of American music, Henry Parker's Tone Poem for violin, and two choral numbers by the high school girls' glee club, tribal Indian songs by Laurence and Logan. Miss Grace Barr accompanied with sympathy and true musical insight.

The hostess of the afternoon, Mrs. Fred Helberg, passed delicious home made cake and tea to the club members and their guest of honor, Mrs Smith, who was much complimented on her excellent review.

SUCCESSFUL DANCE TO BE REPEATED TONIGHT

The success of the midwinter dance given by Les Perkins and his jazz kings at El Verano Villa was so pronounced that the boys are giving another dance tonight, January 24th, at the Villa. The five piece orchestra and good maple floor are popular with dance lovers.

Miss Dowd, formerly of San Jose, is the new teacher at the high school successor of Miss Hoag, resigned.

SONOMA TO HAVE PUBLICITY CAMPAIGN

hensive campaign contemplated. "A virgin field, entirely unexploited, the Valley of the Moon has the greatest future for development I ever saw," declares Mr. Wallace.

He is an expert writer and will write up much of the romantic traditions of the valley for publications for which the Index-Tribune handles correspondence. He is also a clever photographer and will tell in pictures as well as by written page the beauties and attractions of this unsurpassed recreation and health paradise.

It is planned to map out a program for 1925 and each improvement club and the Chamber of Commerce will be invited to send a representative to confer upon the publicity campaign already undertaken.

Already several important projects one having to do with the opening up of a big industry near Sonoma which would result in a payroll for the community, are being looked into by Mr. Wallace, who is experienced in following up such matters. There is no question but that Sonoma Valley is greatly in need of such work. Just on the threshold of a new era of expansion, publicity and the energies and experience of an expert co-operating with local organizations are imperative.

Mr. Wallace will make his headquarters at this office where all inquiries will be answered relative to the plan of bringing the Valley of the Moon to the attention of the thousands of tourists and others already in California seeking the ideal locality of our Golden State.

The co-operation of everyone interested in the future of Sonoma Valley is earnestly solicited that this plan may go forward and Mr. Wallace be assured a substantial workable basis for this big program of expansion contemplated.

FRESNO MEN TO FIGHT GLEN ELLEN SUIT

Indications that Eugene Mathewson, prominent Fresno architect, named in a $67,000 auto damage suit as the result of a wreck on the Black Point cut-off last summer, will fight the charge, were shown this week when he filed an answer to the suit of M. J. Laughnane of Glen Ellen.

Mathewson not only denies all the charges of carelessness and intoxication, but charges the Laughnane car with driving on the wrong side of the road.

The wreck occurred on the Black Point cut-off July 16, 1924, and resulted in the serious injuries of Mrs. Emma Laughnane, wife of M. J Laughnane, driver of the car.

Mrs. Laughnane was hurled to the pavement, sustaining a fractured skull. She was confined to a Marin county sanitarium for some time. Later she instituted the damage action, claiming $60,000 for damages and $7000 for hospital bills, etc.

The finding of two bottles of whiskey in the Brix car, which Mathewson was driving, was the cause of the intoxication charge.

Marvin Minges of Merced county was visiting his grand-dad, J. W. Minges, of Boyes Springs, this week.

"Our Employees are working for you"

When the mountains are hidden behind a swirling blanket of snow, P. G. and E. men are toiling for you up there in the freezing cold.

During severe storms wires may break under the accumulated weight of ice and snow. Poles are blown down or go over under the weight of wires covered with ice. Ice forms on the poles as thick as 12 inches, making them veritable icicles.

Climbing icicles is only one phase of the war between P. G. and E. men and the elements. Often, waist deep in icy water, men of this Company work to the limit of their endurance to keep an adequate supply of water flowing to the mountain power houses.

Consumers who turn the valves of their gas appliances in perfect confidence that immediate service will result, do not realize the unremitting toil that men of this Company perform, often at great personal danger, that this service shall be uninterrupted.

The employees of the P. G. and E. appreciate the value of good service and endeavor to do their best for customers at all times. Where customers receive service which is particularly pleasing or satisfactory, notification to the Company will be appreciated in order that the employee may be duly commended.

FAREWELL RECEPTION TENDERED TEACHER

A charming social event in the local chapter of the Epworth League was given last Saturday evening at the First M. E. Church of Sonoma It was a farewell in honor of Miss Edith Hoag, who for two years has been connected with the faculty of the Sonoma high school as instructor and assistant principal. She resigns from this field for special work at the Columbia University, entering at once on the course.

A touching and unique feature of the evening was the presentation of a love gift pin, on the part of the League, by Miss Irma Cliff and Miss Cliva Downey, with a few well chosen words by Mr. Crowe, the pastor. For the formality the guest was escorted to the fore by Miss Frances Murphy. The response by Miss Hoag was an expression of admiration for the gift and its significance, and an assurance of affection and love for all that have made her life pleasant and beautiful, alike in the Sonoma school, the church and the league.

A dainty luncheon was served by the girls, with covers laid for thirty The decorations were in red and white the league colors, and were in exquisite taste. Music and games were enjoyed by all and the evening passed all too soon.

For the community Miss Hoag has been a real factor for good. Her quiet, Christian leadership endeared her to all, and we hope for her return to California.

WOMEN'S FARM IS DECLARED A FAILURE

and costly for the taxpayers, and mysterious fires finally culminated in one which destroyed the three story main building. The inmates removed to Napa and Eldridge following the conflagration grew rebellious when refused cigarettes and were regarded as incorrigible by the heads of these institutions.

As a reformatory the farm at Buena Vista was obviously a failure. Women granted parole were usually returned here within a short while. Drug addicts and convicted delinquents went back to their old haunts, coming shortly within the jurisdiction of the courts again and being recommitted to the farm.

As a farm, the institution did not function, due partly to the lack of water and the indisposition of the inmates to work. Poultry raising was so unsuccessful that big consignments of turkeys were bought from nearby farmers for holiday use and other farm produce was also purchased. A herd of goats failed to fascinate the "convalescents" and painting flower boxes and pots proved tame work for those who had traveled the primrose path of the big cities.

The Buena Vista property and roads leading thereto rapidly deteriorated while being used as the women's farm and following its abandonment and the fire became a sorry sight with its uncleared ruins and uncultivated area.

At the present time a colony of epileptic boys from the State Home has been established at the institution and are working the land as much as it can be worked with its rocky soil and lack of water. The property, before its acquirement by the state, was a show place, maintained by rich owners who did not depend upon it as a source of revenue. As a farm it is conceded to have been a poor buy for the State of California, although its great beauty and location in the foothills makes it an attractive piece of property.

Despite the efforts of club women of California to again re-open the Buena Vista institution for narcotic addicts, alcoholic victims and delinquent women, it is not thought likely that the legislature will vote the big appropriation necessary for rebuilding and maintenance. Director of Institutions Walter Wagner's recommendations will have undoubted weight with assemblymen and senators as he is judging the project from the standpoint of efficiency and utility. Should the legislature, however, on the plea of club women, make an appropriation, it is believed Governor Richardson will again veto it, as the governor thinks the experiment should be made by those interested and having faith in the rehabilitation work, and not by the taxpayers of the state, already overburdened by the support of many unfortunates and dependents in a score of state institutions which are humanely necessary or have justified their continuance.

The Y. L. I. card party will be held on January 28th.

Ed Morris, wife and three sons are residing permanently on the old Morris ranch at Agua Caliente Mr. Morris and his brother, Dr. Morris, have taken over the place and will equip it with modern farming machinery and otherwise bring it up to scientific efficiency.

SONOMA COUNTY ASKED TO UNITE FOR BRIDGE

Preliminary steps looking to the formation of a bridge and highway district to finance the construction of the Golden Gate bridge were taken at Santa Rosa this week when W. J. Hotchkiss, president of the Bridge the Bay Association presented a petition to the Board of Supervisors of Sonoma county, declaring the intention of the County of Sonoma to unite with other counties in adopting like ordinances to form a bridge and highway district, and directing the circulation of a petition for that purpose as provided by law, and providing for the publication of the proposed ordinance.

The Bridge the Bay Association and the counties which are to be included in the proposed bond district which will finance the construction of the span are now ready to take definite steps looking to the building of the bridge, Hotchkiss declared, and all necessary legal action will be put through and consummated as soon as possible. Napa county has declared her intention of adopting this ordinance in two days, Hotchkiss stated, and the bridge district will be formed in three weeks, after which petitions will be circulated in the various counties which have adopted this ordinance.

The counties which will be the nucleus of the proposed district include Sonoma county, City and County of San Francisco, Mendocino, Napa, Lake, Humbodt, Marin and Del Norte. Later, other counties contiguous to the bay regions and which will be benefited by the construction of the Golden Gate bridge, will be included in the district, it is announced.

The Bridge the Bay Association has been at work on this project for over two years, and so far all that has been done is but a trifle compared to what must be done before the actual construction of the bridge can be begun, according to Hotchkiss The supervisors of every county affected will have to be approached in the same manner as Sonoma county, the bridge and highway district formed, officers chosen, and the legal and financial matters pertaining to the project taken care of.

Speed Cop Eberhardt overhauled one of the Locarnini boys of Vallejo Sunday and charged him with speeding. The case will come up before Judge Small.

A. Baccala has made many nice improvements on his property since the state highway curve has been completed around his corner. A new fence, garden and other improvements are noted.

High School News

(By HELEN TRACY)

The basket ball team made a better showing here last Friday night than they did at Napa the week before. The 130 pound team defeated the Calistoga team with a score of 14 to 11. The Sonoma unlimited lost to Calistoga, 24 to 13. With a little improvement they should have a fine chance at the championship. But the financial results of the basket ball game showed a deficit of $17.15. Where was the crowd? Basket ball cannot continue with another deficit and we surely don't want to be forced to drop out of the league just because we can't finance the games played here. The bigger the crowd, the better the fellows feel, so naturally they fight harder and as a result you see a better game.

After much practice the girls' basket ball season is to open with a big double header, Friday, ninth period. The games are to be Freshmen vs. Sophomores and Juniors vs. Seniors. Ten girls from each class were chosen and from them will be chosen the five who exhibit the best playing and team work, to from the regular quintet.

Last week Andrew Anderson finished overhauling his Ford in the auto mechanics class. He says it now purrs like a kitten and runs better than a new one. If that is the case, Ford owners, don't crowd the auto mechanics class too much with your run down flivvers.

On Monday, student English tests were given out to all the students of the school. These tests included punctuation of sentences, capitalization, grammar and general sentence structure Some of the mistakes were so apparent to the students that they could not help laughing at them.

The weekly Student Body meeting was held January 16th, in honor of Miss Hoag's leaving. The students sang songs and there was music by the orchestra. Mr. Golton spoke to us for a short time and then Miss Bloom agve a few remarks relative to Miss Hoag's departure. A few minutes before we adjourned, Angelo Signorelli, our yell leader, lead us in a few yells in order to be in practice for the coming game.

The horticultural class is planting flowers and shrubs around the school grounds. The vocational math class under the direction of Mr. Benton is figuring out the number of sprinklers and length of pipe needed for the lawn to be planted in front of the school. After everything has been planted and started to grow, Sonoma may well be proud of her new high school.

At the last Board of Control meeting the members decided to give a prize to the student who drew the best poster about "Why We Should Buy Our Student Body Cards" A number of the members of the mechanical drawing class are working for the prize.

MRS. KININNOOK GETS $1.00 PRIZE

For the cutest Kiddy-kute saying in the San Francisco Herald last week Mrs. Kininnook, formerly of Sonoma but now of Glen Ellen, got the prize. Her story was as follows:

"My little daughter, just 4, has the 'job' of taking our slippers into the clothes closet and lining them up neatly along the wall. This morning when she failed to do her job, I asked: "Where's the girl that puts away the slippers?' And like a flash she shot back: 'Oh, she got canned yesterday.'"

MINISTER'S MOTHER IS LAID TO REST

After a long illness and tender devotion of her family, Mrs. K. Youngman, mother of Rev. W. H. Youngman of Glen Ellen and Kenwood passed away Sunday morning last.

Deceased had resided in Berkeley with a laughter but some time ago returned to Kenwood where her son is pastor of the upper valley churches. Funeral services were in Santa Rosa Tuesday.

On February 19th the Pythian Sisters of Petaluma will give a card party at Pythian Castle to raise funds to furnish the Pythian State Home at Kenwood, the former Kearns ranch, purchased by the Order.

Mrs. William Steinkamp, who has been confined to her bed for several weeks with a severe illness, is now improving. Mrs. Otto Rotermundt has been nursing at the Steinkamp home during her illness.

Joseph Sorini, prominent wine man, is in a Napa hospital undergoing treatment for dropsy. Mr. Sorini has been active and progressive in the local business life of the community and it is to be hoped that he will soon be able to return home and resume his work.

Word comes from St. Helena sanitarium that Mrs. Harry Weise, who is taking treatment there, is not as well and is again confined to her bed. Her husband and son, Shirley, visited her Monday. Many anxious inquiries come to the Weise ranch concerning the progress being made by Mrs. Weise who is president of the Glen Ellen Women's Improvement Club and a pioneer of the upper valley.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION PRIZE CONTEST

A prize of a $5 gold piece is being offered by the Physical Education Department of the Sonoma county schools to the school that composes the most workable sportsmanship code for elementary schools.

Rules of the contest are as follows:

1. This must be a school activity and not an individual one.

2. The code must express the ideas of the boys and girls of the elementary school age as to what constitutes good sportsmanship, or "the good sport."

3. The prize is to be used in securing something which the boys and girls desire for their school.

4. The code must be neatly copied by a pupil elected for that purpose.

5. Place the name of the school inside a sealed envelope and paste the envelope to the paper on which the code is written. Place these in a second envelope and send to Miss Myra Green, Supervisor of Physical Education, Court House, Santa Rosa, Cal. not later than Lincoln's birthday, February 12th, 1925. Do not have the name of the school on the paper or on the outside of the above mentioned sealed envelope.

6. The best code will be chosen by three judges after which the attached envelope will be opened and the winning school determined.

KU KLUX IS BARRED FROM SCHOOL HOUSES

School buildings in California cannot under the law be used for meetings of the Ku Klux Klan or any other secret organization, it was ruled by State Superintendent of Public Instruction Will C. Wood, last week in response to a question raised by a Gridley school trustee. He said he had been approached with a request that the K. K. K. be allowed to hold a meeting in Gridley school house.

DENIES THERE WAS RAID

There was no raid at the El Verano Villa this week as reported by a Santa Rosa paper. The raid was on a nearby El Verano resort and nothing was found by the officers.

EL VERANO NEWS

ing. It is the intention of Perkins brothers to hold several dances at the Villa during the winter months. The Villa hall has one of the finest floors in the valley and is very popular during the summer season.

Frank Weigands, former resident, who now lives in Sebastopol, was renewing acquaintances in El Verano Monday. Weigands is an agent for the Ford Motor Company.

San Francisco visitors at the Stillings home here Monday were Miss N. Thomas, J. Thomas, E. McCoffery, C. T. Thomas and A. Thomas.

L. P. Kearney, T. H. Baines, Dave Forni and Bill Baines and Al Rossi enjoyed a motor trip to Bodega Bay Monday.

The writer has received a card from Henry Koerner who is visiting his old home town in Germany. Our esteemed townsman is having a wonderful visit with school day chums and is reading the Sonoma Index-Tribune over there, getting the news of Sonoma Valley. Mr. Koerner will return home in March.

William Kearney and John Dowdall were motor visitors to Winters and Woodland Saturday, returning home Sunday.

The writer, through an error, failed to mention in his letter to the Index-Tribune last week that Mr. and Mrs. John Bolin of Fetters Springs attended the surprise party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Joost.

MRS. JIM SHAW IS CALLED BY DEATH

Mrs. Mary Hood Shaw, widow of the late James A. Shaw of Kenwood, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Sneyd-Kynnersley, in San Francisco Tuesday at the advanced age of 84 years. She was a native of Scotland, but had resided in this country for many years and the family made their home on a ranch at Wildwood in Los Guilicos Valley many years ago.

The other children are Mrs. C A. Carman and Miss Hazel Hood Shaw. Miss Jennie Hood is a surviving sister and she was related to the family of the late Judge Jackson Temple of Santa Rosa. The funeral was held in San Francisco and the body taken to Santa Rosa and interred in the family plot there Thursday morning. Rev. William S. Short of the Episcopal Church of Incarnation, officiated at the committal service—Santa Rosa Press Democrat.

FAMOUS RACER DIES IN SOUTH

Lou Dillon, the first horse to trot a mile in less than two minutes, and the world's champion race horse from 1903 to 1912, died last Saturday at the age of 27 years at the stables of C. K. G. Billings, a millionaire sportsman of Santa Barbara.

Lou Dillon was born in Santa Rosa in 1898, and attracted world wide attention at Memphis, Tenn., in October, 1903, when she trotted the mile track in 1:58½ to beat her own world's record of two minutes flat, set the same year.

That record stood until 1912. Lou Dillon was sired by Sydney Dillon out of Lou Milton and was purchased by Billings in 1903. She had been in retirement for a number of years and the cause of death is said to have been colic.

Lou Dillon was born at what is now the Santa Rosa stock farm, on the old fair grounds just outside of the city limits. The horse was owned by Pierce Brothers, who later sold the farm to the present owner, George R. Harrison.

YOUNG LADIES INSTITUTE INITIATES TWELVE

The Young Ladies' Institute of Sonoma, just two years old and declared to be one of the most flourishing in the state, initiated 12 more candidates Thursday night at Castagnasso hall. Grand President Frances O'Callahan, Grand Secretary Malloy and Past Grand President Douglas were in attendance.

Following the initiation ceremonies there was a banquet dancing and entertainment. The presentation of a silver set to the council's newlywed, Mrs. Margaret Monk. nee Camanati, was also a feature of the evening.

Entertainment was furnished by Mrs. L. V. Emparan, Mrs. Catino Mrs. Newton Dal Poggetto, Mrs. T. Cereghino, John Steiner, and others.

The presence of Rev. J. F. Byrne and a number of Young Men's Institute members contributed to the social side of the evening.

Those initiated were Rose Pagani, Emma Newman, Maysie Boutin, Susan Roeder Edne Roeder, Mrs. Roeder, Gabrielle F. Heggie, Mrs. L. H. Green, Catherine Bacher, Mrs. L. Boutin, Mrs. Antone Kiser, and Mrs. J. Mallon.

At the district meeting in Petaluma shortly it is expected that Sonoma Council Y. L. I. will have a class of 15 initiates, bringing the membership up around the 100 mark.

HIPPODROME THEATRE ANNOUNCEMENT

The management of the Hippodrome Theatre, Napa, today made the following announcement of general interest to "Hip" patrons in this vicinity:

"The Hippodrome Theatre weekly program will no longer be distributed by mail. It will hereafter be published in this paper.

"We are taking this step with the hopes of improving our publicity service; with the idea of aiding our patrons to anticipate feature pictures in which they might be interested; and with the purpose of reaching a greater number of people than we have been able to reach in the past."

The weekly program will appear each week on page two.

DIED IN OAKLAND

Lizzie Carriger Barrickman, last surviving daughter of the late Mrs C. C. Carriger, died in Oakland January 10th. A brother, Harry Carriger and a son, Burton Barrickman, survive her. Deceased was 53 years of age and spent her girlhood in Sonoma Valley. She had resided in El Verano some time ago, removing to Alameda county where burial took place.

CARD OF THANKS

U. O. R. M. TO GIVE PRIZE MASQUERADE

The United Order of Redmen of Sonoma, with the Daughters of Pocahontas will give a real costume masquerade ball at Union Hall on Washington's birthday eve. This is an annual event with the Redmen and is always one of the big dances of the year. There will be liberal cash prizes and a San Francisco costume company has been engaged to furnish the costumes. As the rule of permitting no one on the floor without costume and mask until after 11:30 o'clock will be strictly adhered to a splendid array of maskers is looked forward to and a real carnival time planned.

Music will be furnished by Les's jazz kings, which assures dance lovers lots of pep and late melody.

The committees on the masquerade are as follows: Otto Rehaag, John L. Fox, William Steinkamp, R. Abele, and H. Mundowski; Mrs. Johanna Bill, Mrs. Schrempff, and Mrs. William Downey.

VINEBURG ITEMS

The new Ligi building is completed and quite an improvement for Vineburg. It will be utilized as an oil station, garage and up to date blacksmith shop, where Joe Callavini, expert San Francisco mechanic, will do all kinds of blacksmithing and horseshoeing.

Mr. Rosaro and daughter, Miss Josephine, and Mrs. August Figone and daughters, Norma and Rosalie, all of San Francisco, were guests of Mr .and Mrs. John Batto Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hyatt of Cordelia were guests of Mr. and Mrs E. Forni last Sunday.

Charles Banchero, sales manager in the grocery department at Batto's Spur, motored to San Rafael Sunday and says that while San Rafael is quite a village, it cannot compare with Napa for beauty.

Fred Batto and Joe Andrieux transacted business in San Francisco last Wednesday.

Mrs. Frank Groskopf was a visitor at her country home here oevr the week end.

The many friends of Mrs. B. Groskopf, who has been ill, will be glad to hear that she is now convalescing under the care of her daughter, Mrs. Leona Batto.

We hear that Willard Cole, one of Vineburg's popular young men and a graduate of the Sonoma high school, is now holding a nice position in the Emporium, in San Francisco.

Roy Bilyou returned home last week from a pleasant trip to the bay cities.

During the year of 1924 there were 137 straight car loads of grain mill feed, hay, coal, etc., received at Batto's Spur, and this applies only to direct shipments of carload lots.

Dividend checks amounting to 3 per cent on their stock have been received by local stockholders in the Golden Gate Ferry Company for the six month period ending December 31st. This seems to be one of the best investments into which Sonoma people have put their money within the last few years.
